“All Together Now” is the theme of McIntosh Memorial Library’s Youth Summer Program 2023!

The program’s calendar lists events and classes for youth and are color coded by age group. See Ages Legend to the right.

The locations of where events and classes meet are listed in the color of the age group in the Locations Legend to the right.

The length of each class is listed in the Youth Summer Program’s catalogue found at the library’s front desk and on the library’s website.

Classes which require registration are denoted with double asterisks **.

Registration is made in person at the library’s front desk or by calling the front desk at (608) 637-7151 extension 6.

Elementary aged classes will require submitting parental contact information prior to dropping off your child for a class.

To submit parental contact information: arrive early to the meeting location of the class. An intake form will be provided to you to complete.

If you or your child benefit from disability-assistance, please call the Youth Services Director at (608) 637-7151 extension 5.
